TRIBUTE TO GEORGE FOREMAN

Boxing South Africa and South Africa's broader boxing community is saddened by the passing of two-time heavyweight champion of the world, Olympian and humanitarian, George Edward Foreman Sr. As reports have confirmed, George Foreman peacefully departed on March 21, 2025 surrounded by loved ones.

Boxing South Africa Chairperson, Ayanda Khumalo thanked Foreman for the contributions and for being a "symbol of resilience and inspiration for many aspiring athletes all over the world."

She said Foreman's legacy among many, would be his legendary contribution to the sport of boxing and the indelible mark he's left in the entire sport at large.

"We thank you family for sharing you with us all these years. As they say, 'Legends never die! Memories of the virtues and impactful life continue to live forever in our hearts,' added Khumalo

End.
