

Weekend Preview

Boxing enthusiasts in Cape Town are in for a ‘boxing feast’ with the ‘Battle for Glory’ taking a centre stage live from Simon van der Stel School Hall, Wynberg, Cape Town on Saturday, 19th April 2025.

Fireworks are expected to fly as the main bout is featuring one of Western Cape’s brightest talents, Asekho Nocele (21) originally born in Mthatha in the Eastern Cape, and his record stands on seven (7) bouts, seven (7) wins. Lopez Maluleke, the opponent will be no push over, and will be looking to bounce back from the loss to Cayden Truter back in August 2025.

8 Rounds Bantamweight bout

Asekho Nocele (Cape Town) vs Lopez Maluleka (Johannesburg)

6 Rounds Welterweight bout

Wasim Chellan vs Siphenathi Qampi (both from Cape Town)

6 Rounds Junior welterweight

Jason Phaal (Cape Town) vs Vuyani Kosana (Bloemfontein)

6 Rounds Junior welterweight

Brucely Mugutso (Cape Town) vs Trinity Nxumalo (Johannesburg)

6 Rounds flyweight

Asavela Peter (Cape Town) vs Tsepo Mokele (Bloemfontein)

4 Rounds Welter weight

Calvin Madondo (Cape Town) vs Siphehane Lithuli (Ceres)

4 Rounds Junior Flyweight

Lukhangele Majali (Cape Town) vs Nikho Loli (Cape Town)

4 Rounds Female Junior flyweight

Olwethu Makathala vs Noxolo Magugula (both from Cape Town)

Boxing Grand Prix Riyadh, Saudi Arabia

The WBC in partnership with Riyadh Season will host 128 boxers from across the world in the first-ever boxing grand prix from April 17th -20th in Riyadh, where more than 40 countries will be represented, 32 fighters per division, single elimination.

South Africa will be represented by five (5) talented boxers who have been selected to participate in this prestigious event.

Boxing South Africa would like to wish our boxers participating in the event all the best.
Make us Proud!