

Nqothole expected to bounce back against Amukwa

Fireworks are expected to fly on Friday, 20 September 2024 as former IBO African Super Flyweight Champion and current WBO Global Super Flyweight Champion, Sikho Nqothle takes on Namibian Jafet Amukwa in an international bout at Box Camp Booysens, Johannesburg on Friday evening brought by Boxing 5 Promotions.

Action starts at 19h00.

Nqothle is looking to use the fight to redeem himself after a tough international loss when Calixto Bibiano in Mexico defeated him earlier this year.

Nqothle is currently rated 17th by World Boxing Council (WBC), 11th in the International Boxing Federation (IBF) and 15th in the World Boxing Organization (WBO).

In a Main Supporting Bout, a thrilling match Almighty Moyo (Zimbabwe) takes on Faraday Mukondila.

Meanwhile, in the flyweight division, hard hitting Frank Sotomela (Eastern Cape) will take on Thamsanqa Cele (Gauteng)

Rounding out the card is the current Gauteng Lightweight Champion, Katlego 'Kats' Khanyisa who will feature in the co-main event.

Also expected to feature on this evening.

Junior Featherweight: Semeer Mulla (GP) vs Saul Hlungwana (GP)

Mini Flyweight: Thabo Moabi (GP) vs Siyamthanda Wophela (EC)

Flyweight: Bangile Nyangani (GP) vs Njabulo Buthelezi (KZN)

Jnr Middleweight Lightweight: Joshoe Feldman (GP) vs Henry Muyaya (Malawi) and John Paul Kganane (GP) vs Gedeon Tshizubu (DRC)